A standing order is easy to set up in online banking or you can request your bank to set one up by telephone, letter or visiting a branch.

If you cannot pay by electronic transfer, or prefer to pay by cheque, please make your cheque payable to "Lechlade Art Society" and either bring it with this completed form to a Society meeting/event or post both documents to:

Val Mackenzie (Membership Secretary)
24 Lechlade Court,
Faringdon Road
Lechlade GL7 3JS

The Society cannot accept payment by cash. Please indicate your method of payment:

- Standing Order for £..... as an annual payment on / / (DD/MM/YYYY)
- Single payment of £..... by electronic transfer on / / (DD/MM/YYYY)
- I/we enclose a cheque for £.....

Lechlade Art Society Data Protection Policy (the Policy) – How the Society stores and uses your personal details

I/we confirm that I/we consent to the Society storing and using my/our personal details as described in the Policy. The Policy is available on the Society's website to read, download or print and is filed with the Society's rules. The Policy should also be available in hard copy to read if you are completing this form at a Society meeting/event. If it is not available, or you are concerned by the contents, please contact the Membership Secretary.

Communication Preferences – How the Society will communicate with you while you are a member

Please show your preference by ticking one box only. The Society will endeavour to comply with your preference for all normal activities but may, in abnormal circumstances, need to contact you urgently by any method available.

I/we consent to the Society storing my/our contact details as described in the Policy and contacting me/us about Society meetings/events and, occasionally, about activities arranged by other local art societies, groups and tutors such as exhibitions, workshops and visits by:

- Any contact method which I/we have provided on this form including email, post, telephone and text. Note that the Society's preferred communication method is email. Text is not currently used at all.
- Post only. You will receive newsletters and only limited information about Society events. You are encouraged to use the Society's website and/or communicate with other members regularly to get the most out of your membership.
- None except for membership renewal. You are encouraged to use the Society's website and/or communicate with other members regularly to get the most out of your membership.

I/we consent to the Society:

Using my/our name(s) and supplied artwork details on labels alongside any artwork that I/we submit for exhibition and on exhibition administration paperwork, leaflets and promotional material including in local papers/magazines.

Displaying my/our artwork with name(s) and supplied artwork details on social media, the Society's website, promotional material including local papers/magazines, and in other public places unless I/we have explicitly requested in writing to the Society's Secretary that this should not be done without my/our prior permission.

Using photographs of me/us taken at Society events on social media, the Society's website, promotional material including local papers/magazines and in other public places.

I/we understand that my/our consents and preferences can be amended or withdrawn at any time by contacting the Society's Membership Secretary in writing. I/we understand that withdrawal of consent may mean that the Society cannot confer normal membership benefits including, but not limited to, distribution of information. Your data will not be passed to any other organisation. Please help the Society by notifying the Membership Secretary of any changes to your personal data. Thankyou.
